- These terms and conditions (“HSBC Cashback Credit Card Terms and Conditions”) apply to the HSBC Cashback Credit Card and will apply in addition to the General Terms. In the event of any conflict, the terms contained in the HSBC Cashback Credit Card Terms and Conditions will prevail.
- We reserve the right to refuse any application (without providing an explanation for such refusal) for the HSBC Visa Platinum Cashback Credit Card or any service relating to it.
- The HSBC Cashback Credit Card Terms and Conditions applies to HSBC Primary and Supplementary Credit Cards.
- All of the following benefits will apply to Primary and Supplementary HSBC Cashback Cardholders.

What is the Cashback offer?

Cashback (as a percentage of the relevant spend in the Cashback Category)	Cashback Category

2% (up to a maximum of OMR 20 per statement cycle)	On all eligible Supermarket spends in Oman

(the above together the “Cashback Categories” and each a “Cashback Category”)

You cannot earn Cashback in more than one Cashback Category for the same transaction.

Which spends qualify for Cashback?

- If you make an eligible spend on any of the above Cashback Categories on your HSBC Cashback Credit Card you will be entitled to earn the relevant Cashback as specified in the table above. Please note that any Cashback for Fuel will be limited to a maximum Cashback of OMR 10 per statement cycle, and for Supermarkets a maximum Cashback of OMR 20 per statement cycle. (“Cashback”).
- The maximum Cashback specified above that you can earn in each statement cycle will apply to each Account irrespective of the number of Primary or Supplementary cards you hold.
- Cashback accrued for transactions by a Supplementary Cardholder shall be credited to the HSBC Cashback Credit Card account (“Account”) of the Primary Cardholder. Where a Supplementary Cardholder has a separate limit the Cashback will be earned on transactions done on the Supplementary card and will be credited to the Supplementary card.
- Cashback cannot be exchanged for any other rewards, and is not refundable, replaceable, or transferable under any circumstances, and cannot be re-converted back to Cashback accrued. Only retail purchases made on the eligible Cashback Categories by you using your HSBC Cashback Credit Card qualify for the Cashback.
- The following transactions will not be eligible for earning Cashback:
 - Flexi Instalment Plan;
 - Quasi cash transactions (including but not limited to currency exchange);
 - All cash advances;
 - Finance and other fees and charges, including premiums for Credit Shield Plus;
 - Credit Card repayments;
 - Any credit transaction including as but not limited to refunds, reversals, refund of disputed transactions;
 - Any unauthorized or fraudulent retail transaction; or

- Any other transactions determined by us from time to time.
- Unless expressly stated in these HSBC Cashback Credit Card Terms and Conditions, or otherwise notified to you, you are not entitled to earn Cashback from any other categories of transactions.

- Only retail purchases that have been posted to your Account within your statement cycle period will be eligible for Cashback in that month. Please note the date your transaction is posted to your Account may be later than the actual transaction date. For example, if your statement cycle (i.e. when your statement is generated) is on the 30th of the month and a purchase made on the 29th of the month is posted to your Account on the 1st of the following month, the Cashback will only be accrued for this particular transaction in the next statement cycle.
- If a Supermarket or a Fuel spend has been made online at a merchant located in the Oman, we will apply the Cashback Category according to the spend classification as determined by Visa.
- Pre-authorizations on your HSBC Cashback Credit Card will not qualify for the purposes of your eligibility towards the Cashback unless the transaction is authorized and posted to your Account.

- Any decision on how spends are classified for each Cashback Category is according to the classification as determined by Visa. Any decision about whether spends on purchases qualify as spends for the purposes of Cashback shall be resolved by us in our sole discretion and our decision is final.

What is a statement cycle period?

- This is the period which starts the date your statement is issued and continues until the next statement.

When will the Cashback be credited?

- If you fulfil the General Terms and these HSBC Cashback Credit Card Terms and Conditions, the eligible Cashback amount will be automatically credited to your Account no later than 5 working days after your statement date every month. For example, if your Account statement is the 1st of every month, the eligible Cashback amount will be credited to your Account by no later than the 5th working day of every month for the previous statements transactions. We may adjust your account to correct any errors.
- It is your responsibility to ensure that your Account is open, active and in good standing when you start using your HSBC Cashback Credit Card. Failure to do so may mean that you are no longer eligible to earn Cashback.
- The Cashback amount will be credited after being rounded off up to 2 decimal places.
- Any Cashback amount credited to your Account will offset against your outstanding balance as per the existing payment allocation method outlined in the HSBC Credit Card Terms Agreement Terms. If the Cashback amount is higher than your outstanding balance, the surplus amount will remain on your HSBC Cashback Credit Card as a credit balance that you can use for subsequent transactions.
- Customers are recommended to check their monthly statements for the outstanding amount before making the payment.

What will happen to my Cashback accrued if I close the card mid-cycle?

- Any Cashback accrued for transactions posted to your HSBC Cashback Credit Card from the last statement date up to the date of closure will be credited to your Account and will be treated as a payment towards your outstanding balance. You will then have to clear any remaining balance before the HSBC Cashback Credit Card can be closed.

How will any reversal or refunds to purchases be handled for Cashback?

- Cashback accrued or credited for any retail transaction that is subsequently reversed or refunded ("Reversed Cashback") will automatically be reversed from the total Cashback amount eligible in the statement cycle when the refund or reversal has been received. Where you have no Cashback in such next statement cycle, the Reversed Cashback will be due from you and you will remain liable until we receive such amount.

Is there an annual fee?

The annual fee can be found in our Schedule of Services and Tariffs on our website. From time to time we may publish an offer on our website. If you meet the qualification criteria, your annual fee for that year will be waived. Otherwise, the annual fee will be due annually thereafter where applicable.
