1. What is Credit Shield Plus (CSP)?

Credit Shield Plus (CSP) is an optional insurance cover that you can apply for if you have an HSBC Credit Card issued by HSBC Bank Oman S.A.O.G (HSBC)

It provides insurance cover for the situation where you are unable to pay your credit card debts in the event of:

1. Loss of life
2. Permanent Total Disability
3. Critical Illness
4. Involuntary Loss of Employment (for salaried cardholders only)
5. Temporary Total Disability (for self-employed cardholders only)

2. Who provides the insurance cover?

The insurance cover is provided by American Life Insurance Company (MetLife).

Under the terms of the CSP insurance policy (Policy) between MetLife and HSBC, MetLife will provide coverage to HSBC customers who have opted to be covered under the Policy.

The terms and conditions of the Policy may be amended from time to time. If there are changes to the Policy that impact you, HSBC will give you 60 days notice. HSBC will use appropriate methods to update you about the changes, including by letter, email and other electronic communication channels

3. What are the terms and conditions of CSP?

This document contains the terms and conditions applicable to CSP. Please read the terms and conditions carefully.

There is a glossary at the end of this document to help you understand some of the words HSBC has used. Where you see words or phrases with capital letters (for example "Permanent Total Disability") then you can go to the glossary and check what those words or phrases mean.

4. Can you change the terms and conditions?

These terms and conditions may change from time to time. HSBC will give you 60 days notice of any changes. HSBC will use appropriate methods to update you about the changes, including by letter, email and other electronic communication channels.

The latest version of the terms and conditions are available on HSBC's website at www.hsbc.co.om.

5. How do I accept the CSP Terms and Conditions?

You accept these CSP terms and conditions by signing the "Customer Declaration for Application to Credit Shield Plus". Alternatively, HSBC may ask you to accept these terms and conditions online using an electronic checkbox or some other form of electronic communication of acceptance. By signing the declaration or indicating your acceptance using an electronic method of communication, you are acknowledging that you have read and agreed to these terms and conditions.

HSBC will also assume you have read, understood and agreed to changes to the terms and conditions if HSBC send you notice that they have changed and you do not let HSBC know within 60 days of that notice that you object to the changes or you continue to use your HSBC Credit Card. You agree that your non-objection or continued use of your HSBC Credit Card constitutes your acceptance of such changes. You agree that any electronic method of acceptance shall constitute your acceptance of these terms and conditions, and changes to them, as if you had accepted in writing and all relevant laws and regulations applicable to acceptance of contracts via electronic methods will apply.

6. Am I eligible for CSP cover?

You can apply for CSP provided:

- a. you are a primary credit cardholder of an HSBC Credit Card issued in Oman;
- b. you hold the card as an individual and not as a representative of a corporation;
- c. you are between the age of 18 and 64; and
- d. you hold a valid residency visa issued in Oman

7. Who is not covered under CSP?

CSP does not cover the following:

- Supplementary cardholders.
- Corporate cardholders.
- Cardholders aged 65 or above.

Upon attainment of age 65, you will need to notify HSBC in order to stop paying premiums as coverage will be discontinued under the Policy.

8. How do I opt in for CSP?

When you apply for your HSBC Credit Card, you will be asked if you would like to be covered under the Policy. If you wish to be covered, you will need to tick the CSP box indicated on your HSBC Credit Card application form (if it is a physical or electronic form) or inform the bank representative handling your application process that you wish to be covered.

You can also apply for CSP cover after you have received your HSBC Credit Card. If you would like to do this, please complete the relevant form, which is available on HSBC's website at www.hsbc.co.om, and take it to your nearest HSBC Branch or Customer Service Centre.

Please note that you cannot apply for CSP cover through HSBC for anything other than the debts owed on your HSBC Credit Cards (i.e. it is not a standalone product you can apply through HSBC to cover any other credit cards in your possession).

9. What benefits will I receive in the event of Death, Permanent Total Disability or Critical Illness?

In the event of your Loss of life, Permanent Total Disability or Critical Illness, 100% of the outstanding balance on your HSBC Credit Card would be paid off up to the maximum specified limit as shown below:

Card Type	Maximum Coverage
Classic	OMR 5,000
Gold, Advance, Platinum Select	OMR 10,000
Platinum & Premier	OMR 20,000

Please Note: In case you hold more than one card with CSP activated, the maximum coverage is capped at OMR 20,000 across all cards for all benefits

Additional Critical Illness Benefit:

In addition to the above benefit payment for Critical Illness, coverage on the remaining benefits would continue.

All benefits amounts are subject to change from time to time as set out in section 25.

10. What benefits will I receive in the event of Involuntary Loss of Employment or Total Temporary Disability?

For Involuntary Loss of Employment (only for salaried cardholders) or Total Temporary Disability (only for self-employed cardholders) the benefits are as follows:

- Monthly payments of 15% of the outstanding balance per month for up to 6 months. The outstanding balance would be fixed on the date of loss of employment/first day of disability and would remain constant throughout the benefit payment period (Balance Payment).

AND

- Monthly payments of up to a maximum of OMR 310 per month towards your utility bills for up to 6 months (Utility Bill Payment)
- For details on how the benefits are calculated, please see section 11 below.
- There are certain terms and conditions in respect of each type of claim, which are set out in section 12 below.
- All benefits amounts are subject to change from time to time as set out in section 25.

11. How are the benefits calculated for Involuntary Loss of Employment or Total Temporary Disability?

Balance Payment

The Balance Payment is payable for each period of 30 days of proven unemployment/disability.

For the purpose of the Balance Payment, the outstanding balance amount is fixed as the outstanding balance on the first day of unemployment/disability and would remain constant throughout the benefit payment period of up to 6 months.

Utility Bill Payment

There are two types of utility bills that are covered and a separate maximum limit of benefit for each:

- The first type is water and electricity up to a maximum limit of OMR 155 (One hundred fifty five only) per month;
- The second type is phone (landline and mobile), cable TV and internet up to a maximum limit of OMR 155 (One hundred fifty five only) per month.

For the purpose of the Utility Bill Payment, the monthly payment will be based on the previous month's bill (excluding any amounts accrued from previous months) and the payment will be up to a maximum of 6 months, not exceeding OMR 155 per month per type of bills (i.e. OMR 155 for electricity/water and OMR 155 for phone, cable TV and internet).

For example, if you become unemployed or disabled on 24 September 2014 and your landline phone bill for the month of August 2014 is OMR 100, whereby OMR 75 is accrued from previous unpaid bills and OMR 25 is for the month of August, only OMR 25 would be payable. This same methodology would be applied for each type of utility bill up to the maximum limit of OMR 155 for each type of bills.

All benefits amounts are subject to change from time to time as set out in section 25.

12. Are there any terms and conditions in respect of the benefit payments for Involuntary Loss of Employment or Total Temporary Disability?

The terms and conditions in respect of each type of claim are as follows:

Involuntary Loss of Employment (ILOE):

The benefit payment terminates at the earliest of the following dates:

- if the claim is no longer justified or required
- in case of Death/Disability
- when you resume work (even if it is only part-time work)
- on the date of your retirement or early retirement
- when the maximum benefit payment term of 6 months is reached
- when you turn 65 years old
- when the HSBC Credit Card is cancelled
- when you no longer claim the unemployment benefit (applicable to Omani Nationals only)

You can only claim benefit payments for a total of 6 months in any 12 month period, even if you have multiple ILOE claims in the same 12 month period.

There must be at least 6 months of continuous employment after the term of a first claim for ILOE for which benefits have been paid to make you eligible to make a new ILOE claim. In this event only, these 6 months can be achieved either under a permanent contract of employment, or under a temporary or a fixed term contract.

To make an ILOE claim, you must meet the following conditions:

- You must be less than 65 years old on the notification of unemployment

- You must have at least 6 continuous months of permanent gainful employment of not less than 30 hours per week with the same employer in the private/public sector prior to the claim date
- Your unemployment must be as a consequence of redundancy or dismissal (other than due to a reason of misconduct)

The above eligibility criteria apply to your circumstances as at the point you make an ILOE claim, irrespective of what your circumstances were when you applied for CSP cover.

Total Temporary Disability (TTD):

To make a claim for TTD, the state of your disability must be diagnosed by a medical practitioner designated by MetLife.

The benefit payment terminates at the earliest of the following dates:

- when the claim is no longer justified or required in the case where the underlying condition supporting the claim is no longer present
- in case of your death or Permanent Total Disability
- when you turn 65 years old
- when you are able to resume work (even if it is only part-time work)
- in case of your retirement or early retirement
- when the maximum number of TTD benefit payments (both monthly outstanding balance payments and utility bill payments) have been paid

You can only claim benefit payments for a total of 6 months in any 12 month period, even if you have multiple TTD claims in the same 12 month period.

To make a TTD claim, you must meet the following conditions

- You were in a registered occupation (whether under a permanent gainful contract of employment or under a fixed term contract of employment or self-employed) on the first day of your disability
- You were not disabled when you took CSP cover
- You had to stop working totally as a result of sickness or accident and you were still unable to resume work when the claim was reported

If less than 2 months have elapsed between multiple TTD claims, the benefits will be paid as if only one claim had been made. In such event, the Waiting Period will not apply to subsequent claims after the first TTD claim has been made.

13. When does cover begin?

Your cover will begin from date of enrolment into CSP (post activation of your HSBC Credit Card). A deferral period applies to the Involuntary Loss of Employment, Total Temporary Disability and Critical Illness benefits as mentioned below:

- For Involuntary Loss of Employment or Total Temporary Disability, if you make a claim in the first 30 days from the date you enroll for CSP cover, no benefits will be paid;

- For Critical Illness, if you make a claim in the first 90 days from the date you enroll for CSP cover, no benefits will be paid.

14. How long will I be covered for?

When you opt for CSP, you will be covered for the duration of time you are holding an HSBC Credit Card so long as you continue to pay the monthly premiums, which form part of your monthly credit card bill.

When you reach the age of 65 years, you will need to notify HSBC in order to stop paying premiums as coverage will be discontinued under the Policy.

15. How do I pay for CSP coverage and how much does it cost?

Your CSP premium will be charged as part of your HSBC Credit Card bill and will be reflected in the Credit Card monthly statement.

The monthly premium will be 0.60% of the monthly outstanding balance on your HSBC Credit Card. If you do not have an outstanding balance on your HSBC Credit Card statement date, then there would be no charge for CSP that month.

Example:

If you have a current outstanding balance of OMR 1,000 on your statement date for September, the CSP premium would be OMR 6 for September. If on the statement date, your outstanding balance is nil, you will not be charged whereas cover will still apply.

Premiums and charges are subject to change from time to time as set out in section 25.

16. How do I notify you of a claim?

If you think you are eligible to make a claim under CSP, you will need to notify HSBC of your claim (within 90 days from date of the event leading to the claim) and provide HSBC with any information and documentation HSBC and /or MetLife may request. HSBC will then either work with MetLife in respect of your claim or refer you to MetLife directly to deal with your claim.

You or your beneficiary will need to step in any HSBC branch in Oman to submit your claim and all relevant documents, from Sunday through Thursday, between 8am and 2pm.

In order to ensure benefits are paid as quickly as possible, please ensure any claims are reported as soon as possible after the event (within 90 days from date of loss) and any information / documentation is provided as quickly as possible.
